Fact: Rawiya means, 'she who tells a story' in Arabic

Your story: Now that you have been inspired by Rawiya's photographs why don't you have a go at telling your own story.

Use pictures and words to tell your story about the places and people in your life.

Well done explorers! You made it to the end of the trail. We hope you have enjoyed it and learnt something new about the photographers and exhibition. Show your trail sheet and drawings to the Gallery Assistants as they would love to see what you have made.

Realism in Rawiya is a touring exhibition by New Art Exchange (NAE), Nottingham, curated by NAE and Saleem Arif Quadry.

Welcome Gallery Explorers!

Time to get your thinking caps on by doing the fun activities in this gallery trail and by exploring the fantastic work on show at Impressions Gallery.

Please explore with an adult if you can and if you have any questions you can ask the friendly Gallery Assistant on the Welcome Desk.

Realism in Rawiya explores themes of identity, gender and stereotypes.

A stereotype is a widely but oversimplified idea of a particular type of person.

How many photographs are in this exhibition? Can you count them all?

Looking for clues

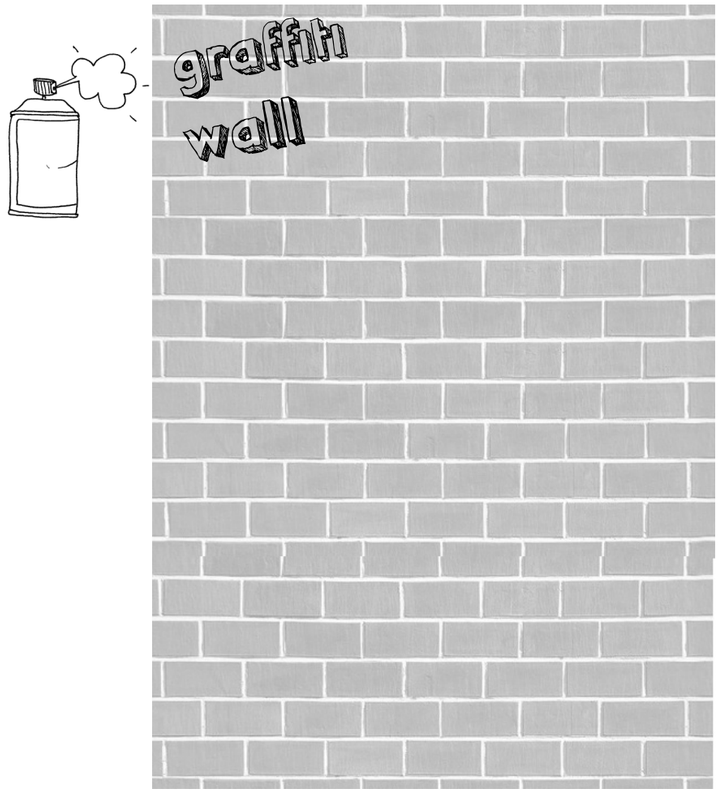

Search for this photograph in the exhibition.
