

One more, with feeling

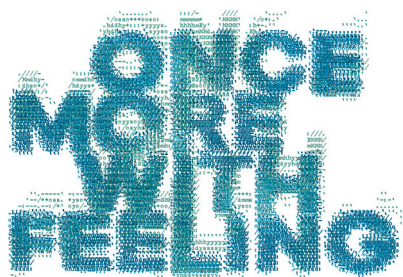

Recent photography from Colombia

This exhibition brings together six artists from Colombia: Milena Bonilla, Juan Pablo Echeverri, Juan Manuel Echavarría, María Elvira Escallon, Oscar Muñoz and María Isabel Rueda. Their photography and video works have been chosen because they each explore performance or repetition in some way. The phrase 'once more, with feeling' suggests a performer endlessly repeating an act, encouraged to try again until they give a genuine emotional response. Whilst the approaches of the artists are very different, all suggest the idea 'once more, with feeling', an action that is repeated, remembered or re-visited.

Some of the works, like Guerra y pa (War and Peace) depict cycles of repetition, either moving towards resolution or trapped in an inescapable loop. Others, such as Desde Adentro (From Within) try to find ways of re-presenting conflict to viewers numbed by repeated acts of violence. Archivo por contacto (Archive By Contact) re-visits and re-examines events in order to evoke memories. Vampiros de la Sabana (Vampires of the Savannah) is one of the several works that uses repetition, performance and portraiture to express or question identity.

All of the works have been made in the last few years and many of them have not been shown in the UK before. To find out more, pick up one of the exhibition guides, watch the film or see the accompanying publication Once more, with feeling.
